In Loving Memory Of

Eileen McKelvey Schield

May 10, 1918

May 29, 2007

Eileen McKelvey Schield, 89, dearest wife and loving mother, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, May 29, 2007 at the Waverly Health Center surrounded by her loving family and friends.

Eileen was born on May 10, 1918 the daughter of Raymond and Olive (Rowe) McKelvey. Olive later married Robert Mong, but Eileen was raised in Franklin, Pennsylvania by her great aunt, Floie Welling---affectionately known as Toy. Eileen graduated from the Franklin High School and then attended Anderson College in Anderson, Indiana for two years where she studied mathematics. It was here that she met her future husband, Wilbur Schield, at a musical program they were both performing in. On March 25, 1939 the couple were united in marriage in the Park Place Church of God by Eileen's grandfather, Alexander Thomas (A.T.) Rowe. The couple made their home in Anderson until 1943 when they moved to Waverly. The couple continued a strong, life long relationship with the Church of God and Anderson University.

Eileen was steadfast in her faith and was a longtime, faithful attendee of Trinity United Methodist Church, Waverly. She and Wilbur both shared a passion for music, passions from their youth, daily devotions and poetry. The couple also enjoyed many hours playing golf and both loved to travel, especially to the warmer climates during the winter months. Eileen was a member of the Wartburg Artist Series and the United Way.

Eileen is survived by her husband, Wilbur Schield of Waverly; their four sons, Milo (Cynthia) Schield of St. Paul, Minnesota, Marlo (Connie) Schield of Stone Lake, Wisconsin, Marshall (Sandy) Schield of Durango, Colorado, Michael (Barbara) Schield of Laguna Woods, California; 9 grandchildren, Laura (Ken) Ashby, Peter (Gina) Schield, Travis (Keitha) Schield, Tracy (Todd) Toner, Troy (Tammy) Schield, Trent (Carrie) Schield, Melissa (Tim) Wright, Celeste Schield, Stacey (Brett) Shiring; 14 great grandchildren; and two brothers, Bob (Nadine) Mong of Bella Vista, Arkansas and Larry (Becky) Mong of Scottsdale, Arizona. She was preceded in death by her parents and her step-father, Robert Mong. Eileen was dedicated to her husband Wilbur, to her family and to her faith.
